

Brothers and sisters,

This week wedistributed aletter into the mail boxes of more than 2700homesin Denistone as ware just trying to keepin touch with all our people

This letterbox drop is in keeping with the vangelisation mission planArchbishop Fisher announced, which involves reaching out to others pringing more people back techurch

This letter is an announcement that the parish is still ben and active and we are biping that this will help some of our brothers and sisters to feel comfortable to resume the Brunday obligation.

It is also an invitation to everyone to come and listen to series of talks assisting people to gain experience of Christ.

The letter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the help of many members of the lecter was distributed with the lecter was distributed

